DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
INDIAN SCHOOL SERVICE,
OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT,

Carlisle, Pa/ July 2nd, 1896.

Hon. W. N. Hailman,
Supt. Indian Schools,
Washington, D. C.

Sir :-

Replying to your letter of the 29th ult. marked "Supt. 240088 - 96", I have to say that George C. Warren, a Chippewa mixed blood from White Earth Agency, Minn. entered this school in August 1892 in the Sixth Grade, and graduated in class of 1895. While here he rated as a good reliable student, not obtrusive but resolute. His career here was creditable and his character good. He had no particular trade experience but assisted a good deal in the Large Boys' Quarters. He is intelligent and should be able to give satisfaction in the position of Industrial teacher or Assistant Teacher.

Respectfully yours,

A. J. Standing
Asst. Supt. in charge.
