INDIAN SCHOOL SERVICE,
OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT,

Carlisle, Pa., March 25th, 1897.

Hon. W.N. Hailman,
Supt. Indian Schools,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 23rd inst. marked "Supt. 10506-
'97" in reference to Clarence White Thunder, I have to say that the young man in question is a full Sioux Indian - well matured - who has been very persistent in getting his education, being rather slow mentally. He has good governing qualities and is sufficient ly acquainted with the duties of a Disciplinarian or Industrial Teacher's position to render good service. His moral character is good. He can drill a company; does fairly well in gymnastics, and has done some good work in photography. Here he has been useful as a helper, and I know of no reason why he should not do equally well elsewhere.

Very respectfully,

RH Pratt
