To The Honorable

The Commissioner of Ind. Affairs
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir:

I wrote you a few days since, stating that a Carlisle reporter of the Phila. Press desired to use Capt. Pratt's Eighteenth Annual Report, and that on asking Capt. Pratt, who is West, he directed me to get your authority before handing the reporter the proof sheets of a pamphlet we are making of the report. I fear you have been too busy to give the matter attention. If you would please do so at your earliest convenience you will greatly oblige

Very Respectfully

(Miss) M. Burgess
