My Dear Sir:-

I arrived home yesterday and found your telegram in regard to Miss. Redstone awaiting me. I answered today. I enclose letter from James King in regard to transfer to Carlisle. In my opinion he should be sent there but I donot know exactly how to proceed in the matter. How long will it take you to put up a buggy for me? I have authority to buy but I cant wait too long.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

I suppose you dont recognize me in this letter as you have not seen me for a long time. I have been here for six year, and like very much for you to do me a favor, I would not like very much to go Carlisle, and I asked Mr Campbell

going to see you, but I suppose he forgot. My father would like me to go if you can get transportation for me to Carlisle. I haven't learned much this year as we are quite ahead of our class and the books are not high enough. The school is good but I would like a change, as I have been here six years and ~~never~~ tried to do my best.
I remain James King
