

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphic ask to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. If the sender of the message writes on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for transmission or delivery, unless specially insured, in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in copying or otherwise messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent for the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by entering in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for transmitted messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at the office of the transmitting office; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, it is for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery to a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be checked against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

And employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

WILLIAM H. BAUER,

V. P. and Gen. Manager.
