Department of the Interior,
INDIAN SCHOOL SERVICE,

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 24, 1900.

To The Honorable,
The Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir :-

I respectfully recommend Susan Gibbs, the writer of the enclosed letter, for a position as Assistant Matron or Assistant Seamstress, or for some minor place at a small salary in some Indian School. I should say that $15.00 or $20.00 would be ample. Susan is not a graduate and does not get on with her studies, but she is an excellent worker and is highly appreciated wherever work is to be done. Mrs. Pratt has employed her at our own home. She cooks fairly well, is a fair seamstress, is quiet, and has the respect of everybody, but is not competent to fill a first place. She is from the Fort Peck Agency, but does not want to go back to her home surroundings.

Very respectfully,

Major 10th Cavalry, Supt.

Jan 18,

Dear School Father,

I wished to remind you of me to get me a position soon, I remember you have told me to remind you of it. like to take up as a seamstress I think I like that work better then cooking and laundry. So now Major if you get me a position is a seamstress for I am ready to go out for myself now I think I been under your good ^{care} of many years, and so I wish to go soon if it is possible for you to get the position I am old enough now to earned for myself now and ~~will~~ work, so now I remind you of it and hope you will ~~help~~ me along as you said & you would help me if I need a helper, hope to hear from

you. close with love,
