Rule 55. When a telegram cannot be delivered because of wrong or inadequate address, or because the addressee is not known, or for any other reason, a record of the facts will be made upon the envelope of the undelivered telegram, and the sending office will be promptly notified by telegraph of the non-delivery; the service telegram giving such notice will contain the address of the telegram as received, and the reason for the failure to deliver. On receipt of such notice the sending office will compare addresses, and will correct by telegraph any error that may be found. If no error appear, notice will be given to the sender of the telegram, who if he desires to change the address, must either send a new telegram, or pay for the service telegram necessary to change the address of the original.
