June 18, 1900.

To The Honorable,

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs,

Washington, D. C.

Sir :-

Miss Carrie L. Miller, who was formerly my stenographer and typewriter, but who has for seven months been a clerk in the Outing Department under temporary appointment, advises me of her resignation to take effect Aug. 8th, 1900. Under the circumstances I think it best to notify you promptly, in order that we may if possible get from the Civil Service a competent stenographer and typewriter to take her place. This person should be a neat penman, as a very large part of the work is to keep the permanent records of the outing. Good health and a good memory are also essential qualifications for this position. There are many details to look after and much to be remembered in order that information in regard to outing places, students' reports, accounts, etc. may be quickly given when called for. The appointee should report to me promptly on the 8th of August to take up the work Miss Miller leaves.

Under the circumstances, it seems to me better not to renominate Miss Miller after the close of the fiscal year, but to carry her on our irregular roll from the 1st of July to the 8th of August.

Very respectfully,

Major 10th Cavalry, Supt.
