The writer of the enclosed letter, George W. Means, the only Pine Ridge Sioux graduate from this school (in the class of 1890) has, so far as I know been entirely worthy and proper in his conduct since leaving Carlisle. For a long time he was assistant clerk in the agent's office at Pine Ridge, and was also clerk and conductor since leaving Carlisle. He should of course stand interpret for the commission to run the dividing line between the Pine Ridge and Rosebud Reservations. He should of course stand above his record since he left Carlisle.

Very respectfully,

Major 10th Cavalry, Supt.

Dear Friend <sup>and</sup> School Father

I wrote to the Special Agent at Pine Ridge Agency applying for a position in the Clerks office. He answered saying that I should put my application in the hands of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

I want a position as Asst Clerk or Asst. Farmer should there be any vacancy in the near future.

Please use your influence in getting me a position in either position, the former preferred.

I am here shipping cattle.

Hoping to get help from you

I remain as ever your friend <sup>and</sup>

School son
