

FORM 15.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY. TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the transmission of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, or without liability to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

OFFICE OF THE RECORDS
MAY 31 1907

On Complaints in the transmission of messages, any point on the lines of the Company can be inserted by the sender, and the amount of risk and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates: in addition to the usual charge for telegrams, 1/2 cent for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and 1 cent, for any greater distance. No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at the representative offices; and if a message is sent to such Office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminating office. For delivery at greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This company will not be liable for damage or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. It can be granted against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

Employee of this Company is authorized to sign the foregoing:

WILLIAM H. BAKER, JOHN O. STEVENS, ALBERT B. CHANDLER,
P. and Gen'l Manager, Secretary, President.
