1st Endorsement.

Indian Indus. School,
Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 10, 1902.

Respectfully forwarded to The Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Frank is an experienced teacher, a strong able-bodied man with an energetic wife having some knowledge of music. As he prefers an independent position where his wife also can be employed, I would think well of trying him in a small school, should opportunity offer.

R. H. Pratt

Lt. Col. 15th Cavalry, Supt.

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 7, 1902.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Having been appointed teacher at the Indian Industrial School, Carlisle, Pa., Sep. 6, 1902, I began work at once, hoping to learn, during the year, much that will be helpful in the future.

I have had 14 years experience as superintendent and principal of schools, 10 years near Baltimore, Md., 4 years in Ohio. This includes normal, high and graded schools.

I am married, no children. My wife is competent to help me in my work.

Should a vacancy occur during the year, requiring this experience and preparation and salary commensurate, consider me an applicant.

For further information, I refer you to Colonel Pratt, Superintendent, Carlisle, Pa.; Mr. Bates Stephens, State Superintendent of Schools, Baltimore, Md.; Prof. E. B. Prettyman, Principal of Maryland State Normal, Baltimore, Md.; Albert S. Cook, Superintendent, Baltimore County Schools, Towson; Mr. George Kerschner, Ex-Commissioner, Steam Corners, Ohio.

I would be glad to meet you and talk this matter over,

thus giving me an opportunity to learn, and you a chance to find out whether I am the person suited for your special needs.

Very respectfully,
Amos R. Frank.
