CHARLES C. McCABE
BISHOP OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
OMAHA, NEBRASKA

Evanston, Ill., May, 11, 1903.

My dear Sir:-

I appreciate more than I can tell your appreciation of the important work done by Col. Pratt at Carlisle. I do hope that somehow or other he will be continued in office. I have visited that school several times and I have visited other Indian schools on the frontier and I declare to you there is no Indian school on earth like the school at Carlisle. I do hope that Col. Pratt will be enabled to triumph over all his critics and his enemies and go on with the school for many years to come.

The great Church in which I am a Bishop is interested in Col. Pratt and his work. His removal or the acceptance of his resignation would be looked upon with deep regret by the millions of our people.

Yours very truly,

C. C. McCabe
