

FORM 15.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.
This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following
TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same. Business is specially insured, not in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of our lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is not liable for any loss or delay in the transmission of any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

For messages in the transmission of which the sender of the message is insured, the Company can be insured by contract, including, stating agreed amount or risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated message, viz: one percent for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

Persons desiring regarding messages attached to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at post offices transmitting offices; or if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he sends for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or terminal penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison. No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.
