Your information is correct and up to date. To explain or elaborate, use a separate sheet, but be certain that routes are given, place the shortest and best first. When necessary list new schools, endogenous, etc., established. If two or more will mark thorough and convictions, adding similar information for your work, the printed slip for your agencies is appended, and you are desired immediately on receipt of this slip, to facilitate the desired station and usual route thence to all agencies and schools in the location, best office and telegraphic addresses near. For a new edition of the "Route Book," secure data concerning Agents and Agents Superintendents:

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON.

March 15, 1906.

To Agents and Bonded Superintendents:

For a new edition of the "Route Book", accurate data concerning the location, post-office and telegraphic addresses, nearest railroad station and usual route thence to all agencies and schools, are desired immediately on receipt of this circular. To facilitate your work, the printed slip for your agencies is appended, and you will mark thereon any corrections, adding similar information for all new schools, sub-agencies, etc., established. If two or more routes are given, place the shortest and best first. When necessary to explain or elaborate, use a separate sheet, but be certain that your information is correct and up to date.

Very respectfully,

HS.

C. Harrah
Acting Commissioner.
