Major W. A. Meritt, Superintendent.

I herewith forward to you with the recommendation that it be accepted, the resignation of Mr. H. W. Lerman, Florist.

We have thousands of plants out in beds and many in the hot daily attention, also. In addition to this, the hot house must be prepared for fall use. All this takes its time and requires that a florist be temporarily employed until such a time as the civil service commission can take an appointment to fill this vacancy.

Very respectfully,

Sir:

I herewith forward to you with the recommendation that it be accepted, the resignation of Mr. H. W. Leaman, Florist.

We have thousands of plants out in beds and many in the hot house that require constant attention. Our large lawns require daily attention, also. In addition to this, the hot house must be prepared for fall use. All this makes it quite imperative that a florist be temporarily employed until such a time as the Civil Service Commission can make an appointment to fill this vacancy.

Very respectfully,

W. G. Thompson,
Supt. Industries.
