

Major 11th Cavalry,
Superintendent.

M. W. Mercer

Very respectfully,

Wife with him if reinstated and given a position in the west.
Mr. Baird was married last spring and would likely take his school.

and printer at one of the larger schools or as printer at a smaller printer and would, I believe, prove satisfactory either as an assistant Great interest in athletics of all kinds. He is also an efficient disciplinarian. He is an excellent baseball player besides taking athletic in connection with duties of disciplinarian or assistant valuable with one of the smaller western schools as manager of either of the positions mentioned. I believe he would be especially address and, on the whole, I believe would prove satisfactory in disciplinarian. Mr. Baird is a young man of good ability, dressing in the Indian service either as assistant printer or assistant disciplinarian, asking that he be given a recommendation for reinstatement printer at this school until June 30th when the position was spot-

I am in receipt of a letter from Mr. G. E. Baird, assistant
Sir:

Washington, D. C.

1906
The Honorable,
The Commissioner,
Indian Affairs,

OFFICE OF Indian Affairs
Rec. AUG 4

666666

Indian School, Carlisle, Pa.
Aug. 3, 1906.
Maj. W. A. Mercer,
Supt.

Recommends reinstatement of
G. E. Baird, former assistant
Printer at Carlisle, as asst printer or disciplinarian at some other school.

To Supt. 8/7/06
" Pine Ridge 1/24/07

✓ FILE

File

M

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
INDIAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL,
OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT.

CARLISLE, PA. Aug. 3, 1906.

The Honorable,
The Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

I am in receipt of a letter from Mr. G. E. Baird, assistant printer at this school until June 30th when the position was abolished, asking that he be given a recommendation for reinstatement in the Indian service either as assistant printer or assistant disciplinarian. Mr. Baird is a young man of good ability, pleasing address and, on the whole, I believe would prove satisfactory in either of the positions mentioned. I believe he would be especially valuable with one of the smaller western schools as manager of athletics in connection with duties of disciplinarian or assistant disciplinarian. He is an excellent baseball player besides taking great interest in athletics of all kinds. He is also an efficient printer and would, I believe, prove satisfactory either as an assistant printer at one of the larger schools or as printer at a smaller school.

Mr. Baird was married last spring and would likely take his wife with him if reinstated and given a position in the west.

Very respectfully,

Major 11th Cavalry,
Superintendent.