TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:-

On the 10th of the month of August 1906, the following course was offered by the Bureau of Education of the University of Pennsylvania. It was this course of continuing to the diploma the course in Educational Methods offered by the Bureau of Education of Pennsylvania. It was suggested by the Bureau of Education of Pennsylvania that the course should be continued in the summer session of 1906. The course was offered by the Bureau of Education of Pennsylvania. It was suggested by the Bureau of Education of Pennsylvania that the course should be continued in the summer session of 1906. The course was offered by the Bureau of Education of Pennsylvania.

July 25th to August 3rd, 1906.

Mr. Foster covered the work of four out of six weeks from

ARTHUR H. QUINN, DIRECTOR.

PHILADELPHIA, August 1st, 1906.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:-

Owing to the fact that Mrs. E. H. Foster is unable to complete the course in Educational Method offered by the Summer Session of the University of Pennsylvania, I take this means of certifying to the highly satisfactory character of her work. The course attempted to illustrate general method as suggested by psychology in special methods used in the teaching of various school subjects, and to verify it in so far as educational experimentation made verification possible.

Mrs. Foster covered the work of four out of six weeks—from July 5th to August 2nd, 1906.
