Sir:

In reply to Office letter Education, January 10, 1907, referring to Office letter of December 10th, Education, 1906, I have the honor to inform you that the name of the recently appointed Assistant Matron is Anna O. Grove, and that as

Hospital Cook, she has not to my knowledge, applied to the Civil Service Commission to have her name placed on the cook

Register.

I regret delay in answering letter of December 10th, which was overlooked owing to pressure of work.

Very respectfully
