Dr. Sheldon Jackson,
Bureau of Education,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Referring to our correspondence last winter in regard to modification of legislation respecting the return of Alaskan children at Carlisle to their homes, I would very much like to know whether any such legislation was enacted during the last session of Congress. We have thus far been unable to find that anything was done, but sincerely hope that the matter was arranged.

Very respectfully,

Major 11th Cavalry,
Superintendent.
