Supt. Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Sir:

Thank you for the first instalment of the printed reports of Superintendents and Agents. It is in very good shape, except that the press work might be better. More care in inking would make a great difference in the general appearance.

I send herewith copy for a second instalment which I hope the school printery will be able to dispose of. Major Mercer asked that the school be given two lots.

Yours respectfully,

F. M. Conser,

Chief Clerk.
