My dear Mr. Valentine:

I would be pleased to have a copy of your annual report as soon as it may be convenient to send it to me. I have noticed references to it in the public press and I desire to call attention to its contents in the CRAFTSMAN, but as no copy of it has been received officially I take this liberty of making a personal request.

Thanking you for any consideration you may give this communication, I remain,

Very truly yours,

M. Friedman
