The Star Spangled Banner.

O, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed, at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro the night that our flag was still there.

CHORUS.

O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

My Own United States

Lyric by Stanislaus Stange

Music by Julian Edwards

My native land; my country dear,—
Where men are equal, free.
For thee each morn, new love is born,
Sweet land of liberty !
With tears my eyes are filling fast,
Yes, tears that joy awaits,
With love I cry "For you I'd die!
My own United States."

From golden youth to silver'd age,—
Though feeble feet may lag,—
With joy each heart bids age depart,
When gazing on our flag!
The flag that ever leads the van,
Whose courage naught abates,
The flag of youth; the flag of truth!
My own United States.

REFRAIN:

I love ev'ry inch of her prairie land,
Each stone of her mountains' side,
I love ev'ry drop of the water clear,
That flows in her rivers wide;
I love ev'ry tree, ev'ry blade of grass,
Within Columbia's gates!
The Queen of the earth is the land of my birth,
My own United States.
