My dear Mr. Patton:

In answer to your letter of the 10th instant, you are advised that Mr. C. M. Stauffer, Musical Director at Carlisle, was suspended, afterwards, the suspension was removed, and the position of Musical Director abolished, whereupon Mr. Stauffer was dropped from the Service as his position was no longer in existence.

Under the rules of the Civil Service Commission, an employe dropped by reason of the discontinuance of his position, may, in the discretion of the appointing officer, be reinstated in the position should it again be reestablished.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Cato Sells
Commissioner.

WASHINGTON

June 10, 1914.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Sir:

I desire to make an inquiry with respect to Mr. C. M. Stauffer, employed at the Carlisle School. I understand he has been removed from office, and it is to satisfy his brother, a constituent of mine, that I make this inquiry. Will you kindly give me the causes leading to his removal and state anything that about it that may be of interest to me?

Very truly yours,

M. C. 21st District Pennsylvania.
