Dear Sir

I this day recved
a letter from the Carisle Indian School in answer to my letter in regards to Board and I am told that it will cost me $12.00 per month

And as I do not think I can live on that wages I will have to decline the offer
I will wait out some other position that you may have later on

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, WASHINGTON.

Subject: Salary of Fireman at Carlisle.

Nov. 29, 1907.

Supt. Indian School,
Carlisle, Penn.

Sir:-

Henderson Long, who was appointed Fireman at $420 per annum at the Carlisle School, has declined.

It will be very difficult, if not impossible, to fill the position at the present rate of pay, and it is suggested that unless you have some graduates to recommend for the vacancies in these two positions at your school, that the salary be increased to a sufficient amount to make fair living wages for a competent man.

Please give the Office your recommendation in this matter.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) C. F. Larrabee.

Acting Commissioner.
