Sir:

Answering your letter of July 11, you are advised that the position of Musical Instructor at the Carlisle Indian School, Pennsylvania, was recently abolished, and therefore the information given Mr. Harry O. Hickernell, of Hopewell, N. J., by the Civil Service Commission regarding this position is correct.

CARLISLE

Respectfully,

Mr. Edgar B. Merritt,
Asst. Commr. of Indian Affairs.

My dear Mr. Merritt: Will you be so good as to inform me if there is a vacancy in the position of bandmaster at the Carlisle Indian School. A young musical friend of mine — Mr. Harry C. Hickernell, of Hopewell, N. J. — has written to me, telling me that such a vacancy exists, and asks for information in regard to taking a civil service examination for the position.

Emp

but the Civil Service people tell me they know nothing about any prospective examination for the place.

Yours very truly

Benj. M. Connelly
