The Honorable

Commissioner of Indian Affairs:-

Sir:-

I hereby resign my position as Assistant Matron at Carlisle Indian School, Carlisle, Pa., such resignation to take effect Jan. 1, 1908. I have enjoyed my work at Carlisle but the protracted illness of my mother makes my presence at home necessary.

It is my intention to re-enter the Service when able to do so and I trust, should there be a suitable vacancy at Carlisle at that time, that I may be re-appointed to the position.

Very respectfully,

Anna C. Groves
