Mr. Moses Friedman,
Supt., Carlisle School.

Sir:

The Office has your request of October 20, 1913, to approve the checks of DeForest Doxtater for $172.10 to close his account and has read carefully your letter of December 23, 1913 in further explanation of the request.

In view of your statement that you do not consider the applicant competent to handle his funds without supervision, the Office is not willing to authorize you to approve his check for the entire amount of his bank account, unless the expenditure can be supervised. As this probably cannot well be done from Carlisle there would be no objections to your transferring the account to the Superintendent of the New York Agency at Salamanca. This transfer can be made under section 16 Regulations for handling individual Indian money.

Respectfully,

(Signed) E. B. Meritt

Sir:

In reply to Office letter dated December fifteenth, requesting further information concerning DeForest Doxtater, I respectfully advise that this boy is a Seneca Indian, whose home is at Red House, N. Y. He writes from Salamanca, N. Y., at this time. He enrolled at the Carlisle School January 20, 1909, and deserted July 2, 1912. His standing at the school was poor, and he did not appreciate the advantages and opportunities which were offered him. I do not consider him competent. On the other hand, these funds represent his earnings, and he has a natural feeling that the money should be sent to him.

Very respectfully,

M. Friedman
Superintendent.

The Office has your request of October 20, 1913, to approve the checks of DeForest Duxtater for $172.10 to close his account, this pupil having deserted from his place under the outing system.

Your request contains too little information on which to base official action. Please inform the Office where this boy belongs; where he is at the present time; what his standing is in the school; whether he is competent to handle the entire amount if turned over to him unrestricted; and to what extent efforts have been made to return him to his proper place.

Respectfully,

(Signed) E. B. Meritt
Assistant Commissioner.
