Your letter of July 14, 1914, requesting the transfer of your balance of individual Indian money from Carlisle to the Superintendent of the New York Agency at Salamanca, New York, was received and referred to the Superintendent at Carlisle for information. The Superintendent reports that your funds were transferred to Salamanca on June 24 two days after he received your request for it and on the same date he notified the Superintendent at Salamanca of the transfer.

Referring to the Office's letter of July the 20th, I respectfully report that Levi Clute's funds were transferred to the Superintendent of the New York Agency at Salamanca on June the 24th, two days after Levi's request for the money was received here.

On that same date letters as follows were addressed to Levi at Akron and to the Superintendent of the Agency at Salamanca, respectively:

"I have your letter of the 20th, and am sending check today to your Agent closing your account. Your balance is $52.96."

"There is enclosed herewith check for $52.96 transferring to your supervision the account of Levi Clute."

Very respectfully,

HKM.

O. H. Lipps
Supervisor in Charge.

My friend:

The Office has received your letter of July 13, 1914, asking that the balance of your individual Indian money, $52.96, now on deposit at the Carlisle School, Pennsylvania, be transferred to the Superintendent at Salamanca, New York.

In compliance with your request, the Superintendent at Carlisle has been directed to send this money to Superintendent Ansley to be expended for your benefit under his supervision.

Your friend,

(Signed) E. B. Meritt
Assistant Commissioner.

My dear Mr. Lipps:

The Office has a letter from Levi Clute, Akron, New York, stating that he has $52.96 on deposit at Carlisle, and wishes that amount transferred to the Superintendent of the New York Agency at Salamanca, New York.

Unless you have very good reasons for doing otherwise, please transfer this amount to the jurisdiction of the New York Agency without delay.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) E. B. Meritt

Assistant Commissioner.
