Gentlemen:

Your statement of recent date covering supplies invoiced under date of December 6, 1912, for the Carlisle Indian School, is returned herewith, and you are advised that the Superintendent of the said school reports that the materials were not in accordance with the sample, and that the articles invoiced were returned to you December 11, 1912. It therefore appears that nothing is due you.

By direction of the Acting Commissioner,

Respectfully,

(Signed) H. Dimick,

Chief Finance Division.

Sir:-

In reply to Office letter of April 22, 1913, enclosing statement of Greenhut-Siegel Cooper Co., covering supplies delivered on contract No. 18904, dated August 16, 1912, for delivery on December 6, of 1054 1/4 yards blue check material, valued at $73.80, I have to respectfully state that this goods was received but was not the material in accordance with the sample on hand, and it was eventually returned to the Company on December 11, 1912. The claim for this amount is, therefore, void. The bill is returned to your Office for file.

Very respectfully,

W. J. ...
Superintendent.
