FOR FILE.

Answering your letter of August 23, 1913,
(Your file "B") relative to sundry unpaid freight bills covering transportation of supplies to the Carlisle Indian School, you are advised that the Superintendent of the said School reports under date of September 13, 1913, that most of the bills to which you refer have been paid and that all will be settled within a short time or as soon as remittances have been received from the various vendors of the goods who agreed to deliver them f.o.b.
the school.

If further correspondence is necessary with reference to the bills, it is suggested that you write direct to the Superintendent, Carlisle School.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Cato Sells

Sir:

In reply to office letter of September 5, 1913, enclosing letter and statement of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company relative to sundry unpaid freight bills, I have to respectfully advise that these freight bills were to have been paid by various business companies who were supposed to have furnish the supplies F. O. B. Carlisle. Most of these bills have been paid and they will all be settled in a short time or as soon as remittances have been received from the various parties.

very respectfully,

Superintendent.
