Indian Industrial School,

Carlisle, Pa., March 18, 1908.

J. W. G.

Subject:

Authority to tear down chicken house and pig pen.

The Commissioner
of Indian Affairs,
Washington.

Sir:-

Authority is respectfully requested to tear down the old chicken house and pig pen at nearby school farm as they are no longer required for the purpose for which they were built; and on account of their dilapidated condition, they have been replaced by new buildings, and additions thereto have been made on more sanitary ground. The best part of the lumber will be used for repair purposes.

Very respectfully,

Chas H. Dickson

Supervisor in Charge.

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON. March 20, 1908.

SUBJECT:

Authority to tear down the old chicken house and pig pen.

Supervisor in Charge,
Indian Training School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Sir:

In accordance with your request of March 18, authority is hereby granted to tear down the old chicken house and pig pen on the school farm, as they are no longer needed and are in a delapidated condition, and to use the best part of the lumber for repair purposes.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) C. F. Parrabee,
Acting Commissioner.
