June 18th, 1913.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,

Sir:

I regret very much to report that Pauline Peazzoni, a thirteen year old girl who has been enrolled here from southern California since 1905, has died. She had been a patient at the Pennsylvania State Sanatorium at Mont Alto and her death occurred at that institution on Monday forenoon, June the 16th.

The girl's brother, Mr. Eli Peazzoni, requested that the body be shipped to his home at Wybrocke, Pennsylvania, and the burial will be arranged for tomorrow forenoon.

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Superintendent.
