SUBJECT:
Pupils' visit
to Washington.

February 25th, 1909.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Referring to Office letter "Education, 15283-1909, J.H.D.", under date of February 24th and relative to a request from Mr. Joseph R. Brown that his two daughters be allowed to visit him while in Washington, I respectfully report that I have asked Mr. Brown to deposit enough money to cover the round trip expenses for this visit and that as soon as this is complied with that arrangements will be made to have his daughters meet him.

Very respectfully,

My Friend :

Answering your letter of this date, you are advised that I have written Superintendent Friedman concerning your wish that your two daughters in the Carlisle School be permitted to come to Washington while you are here, and have directed him to correspond with you and arrange the matter.

Very respectfully,

R. L. Valentine
Acting Commissioner.

Pupils' visit
to Washington.

Mr. M. Friedman, Supt.,
Indian Industrial School,
Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Sir :

Mr. Joseph R. Brown, whose address while in Washington is 215 Third St., N.W., asks that his two daughters, pupils in your school, be allowed to come to Washington sometime before the 4th of March. He says that he will see to the payment of their transportation expenses.

The Office has no objection to your permitting the two girls to come to Washington for a short visit while their father is here and you may correspond with him and arrange the time.

Very respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Hon. Com^r Indian Affairs
Washington, D. C.
Sir:

I have two daughters
at the Carlisle school that want to visit this city during my stay here ^{and} I most respectfully ask that Supt Friedman be allowed to give them permission to come over here some day to return the next day between now ^{and} March 4th as I think they would enjoy their visit more if they were here before the crowds arrive for the inauguration - I will see to payment of transportation &c.

Very respectfully
Joseph R. Brown
