Mr. M. Friedman, Supt.,
Carlisle Indian Industrial School,
San Juan, P. R.

Sir:-

Yours of the 1st inst. has been received. I am, herewith enclosing application filled by Mr. J. L. Miro, in order that Emilio de Arce, his ward, be admitted at the Indian School at Carlisle. We have made some alterations in certain parts of the application, as it is a Porto Rican, and not an Indian, who seeks admission. Nothing about payment has been said in same, as that will be arranged between yourself and Mr. Miro. He is willing to pay the $167 per year and more if needed. If you find the application correctly filled out, please forward it to Washington. I thought it was better to send it to you first.

With best wishes for the success of the school, I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,

(Miss) ZORAIDA Y. VALDEZATE
