Carbon for Mr. Peairs.

Mr. John Runclose,

(Through Superintendent Carlisle Indian School)

Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Sir:

Sometime ago you wrote the Office asking the privilege of leaving Carlisle so as to go out and earn your own living, and you suggested that the Office write Mr. Friedman about the matter. This was done, and the Superintendent has reported that you have written him a letter saying positively that you wish to stay at Carlisle. These are your words:

"I have decided to remain here at this Institution until you secure me a position or until I have learned more about the trade of printing".

Your decision to remain at Carlisle until you have learned more about your trade is very gratifying and it is hoped that you will settle down to good

Respectfully,

Report requested.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Upon receipt of Office letter of January the 10th, John Runsclose was asked to submit me a written communication stating definitely his desires relative to his continuation as a student at Carlisle. The following reply has just been received:

"I have decided to remain here at this Institution until you secure me a position or until I have learned more about the trade of printing".

I will also report that John had become dissatisfied because there was no opening for him in a printer's position in the Indian School Service, and because there was nothing in sight for him in commercial printing. He seems to see the importance of acquiring further training and that only thru patient waiting can he expect to be considered for an appointment.

Very respectfully,

HKM.
