My friend:

The Office is in receipt of your letter without date, requesting to be advised if the Hopi pupils now enrolled at the Carlisle Indian School, will be returned to their homes this year.

In reply you are advised that these pupils were enrolled at the Carlisle School on January 26, 1907, for five year terms. Their terms of enrollment, therefore, in accordance with the rules of the Indian Office, will not terminate until after the close of the school term in June of 1912.

Superintendent Friedman of the Carlisle School advises that these Hopi pupils have made marked progress during the time of their stay at Carlisle; that they have been very desirable as students, and that they should be an influence for good among their own people after they are returned home at the close of their school terms.

You know that several of the Hopi men are at Carlisle School yet. We heard that they were coming home this summer. But one of the men, my brother, writes that probably they will remain there another year. Is it possible? We need them at home — their families need them. Will you kindly let me know, if they are coming home this year or not. And tell me, please, who it is that wants them to remain longer. If it is really you, then I shall not say anything. But, please, let me know.

Yours obediently,
Ja wa hong yis ma,

Carl
