Sir:

The Office has received your letter of May 29, 1911, saying that your time at Carlisle expires this June, but you are working at the carpenter trade and would like to gain as much experience as possible at that trade before going home.

In compliance with your request, you are hereby permitted to remain at your work until September 1 next, subject, of course, to such instructions as may be given you by Superintendent Friedman from time to time.

Respectfully,

(Signed) F. H. Abbott

Second Assistant Commissioner.

Mr. Robert Valentine.

Dear Sir:—

My time at Carlisle expires this June and I have written you to ask if I may stay September.

I graduated with this class and am working at the printer trade and altho I am getting along nicely I feel
I need a little more experience.

They are going to build a new plumer shop during the summer and I would like to stay here and help build it because I know I would be benefited by doing so.

I was born in New York state but at present I reside in New Jersey and my name is one among those which are to go home this June.

Will it be possible for you to let me stay until September? If so please let me know.

Awaiting your reply, I am sincerely yours.

Robert J. Tahamont.
