Mr. J. R. Frye,

Sallisaw, Oklahoma.

Sir:

The receipt is acknowledged of your letter dated May 29, 1911, requesting permission to be enrolled at the Carlisle Indian School for the next school term.

You advise that you have been attending the Henry Kendall College of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The Office is adverse to enrolling Indians in non-reservation schools, who have been enrolled in public schools and who now have access to such schools.

For the above reason, your application for enrollment at the Carlisle School is denied.

Respectfully,

(Signed) F. H. Abbott,
