In reference to the letter to yourself, which was left informally in the Indian Office today, from Katie Ray, of Dalzell, South Carolina, you are advised that this person made application to the Superintendent of the Carlisle School for enrollment last July. In answering the Superintendent, the Office at that time said that as this young woman was a member of a tribe of Indians who had not for many years, if ever, received any support or assistance in securing an education from the Government, it was of the opinion that it would be unwise to enroll her at Carlisle.

The papers in connection with the case were returned to the Superintendent of that school, and no further information is on file in this Office in reference to her. It is now the policy of the Indian Office to educate only those Indians for whom the States do not provide. This young lady seems to be living in a white community, and unless it should appear that she is deprived of securing an education at her home, the Office ought not to modify its conclusion as set forth above.

Miss Ray's letter is returned herewith.

The Office has received your letter of June 21, 1911, enclosing correspondence with reference to the enrollment at Carlisle of Katie Ray, a Catawba Indian of Dalzell, South Carolina. You ask for instructions.

You are informed that since this young woman is a member of a tribe of Indians who have not for many years past, if ever, received any support or assistance in securing an education from the Government, the Office is of opinion that it would be unwise to enroll her as a pupil at Carlisle.

The application and other papers are returned as requested.

Respectfully,
(Signed) C. F. Hauke,

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

There is being submitted herewith certain correspondence in behalf of Katie Ray of Dalzell, South Carolina. An application for her enrolment at Carlisle, together with a photograph, is also being submitted.

In view of the facts contained in the letters herewith, it is desired that the Office instruct me whether to enroll the girl.

Very respectfully,

Superintendent.

HKM.
