Mr. Moses Friedman,
Supt., Carlisle School.

Sir:

The attention of the Office has been brought to the fact that something like ten years ago Joseph Northrup, a Nett Lake Indian, was convicted on the charge of manslaughter and sentenced, but was paroled and sent to Carlisle School. It is presumed that he returned to the reservation some years ago.

Please furnish the Office with all the records you may have with reference to this case. An early reply is requested.

Respectfully,

(Signed) C. F. Hauke

Second Assistant Commissioner.
