Mrs. Louisa Jordan,

R. F. D. 5, Syracuse, New York.

My Friend:

The Office has received your letter of August 11, 1914, requesting that your daughter who is only twelve years old be permitted to enter the Carlisle School. Our non-reservation schools are for older boys and girls and fourteen is the age limit for admittance. It is believed that you should send your daughter to the public school until she is old enough to take up dressmaking or until she has reached the age of fourteen.

Your friend,

(Signed) E. B. Meritt

8-HJS-18.

Assistant Commissioner.

I have a daughter of 12 years who will be thirteen in January 6th who would like very much to enter Carlisle Indian school this fall. Will you please be kind enough to arrange it so she can enter there by the first of September or sometime this fall.

she thinks it will be the best place for her as she is anxious to learn the dress making trade Her name is Winona Isabell Jordan I sincerely wish you could help me by getting her in Carlisle

your Respectfully

Mrs Louisa Jordan
