In further reference to your letter of October 2, addressed to Supervisor H. B. Peairs, relative to enrollment in the Carlisle Indian School of your nieces and nephew, I wish to say that inquiry has been made as to the circumstances concerning Susie, Carrie and Lucien Rice. Two of the children are too young to attend a non-reservation school, the age limit therein being 14 years, and in the case of the older girl there are good reasons why it would be inadvisable for her to be enrolled in Carlisle. The Office does not feel justified in granting your request in this case.

Yours friend,

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,

Sir:-

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the above noted communication and with reference thereto^{to} state that the three children mentioned by Appletree are Susie, Carrie and Lucien Rice aged respectively 15, 11 and 6 years.

Their mother is dead but their father is living though he is a worthless individual and the children are being cared for by relatives during vacation. They attend the boarding school here when school is in session.

Esh
The oldest one is not at all bright though she can attend the Agency school with profit to herself. She might do better at a school for the feeble minded though I very much doubt it.

The other two are entirely too young to attend a non-reservation school and as their interests do not in my judgement demand it I have not thought it best to so recommend.

Comm'r.....2

Appletree is but very little better than the father of the children about whom he writes.

He has taken up the matter of the transfer of these children with this office two or three times and each time I have advised him that I thought the children were alright here. The letter is returned herewith.

Very Respectfully,

Horace J. Johnson

I am sure with the aid & strength of your office, that my two motherless nieces and nephew could be entered into non Reservation school at Carlisle.

I am asking this because they have no home since the death of their mother. Altho they go to school here at Sac & Fox Agency but what of it.

I rather had the children among the civilized people in east. These said children are bright, could be taught better language and thing else that is of any use to a man while they are in school ages.

Carl I have several reasons for wanting these children, but I will not mention them now.

If there is any room at all at Carlisle, I am satisfied that you will get them in.

Over Supt. H. J. Johnson says he would approve of the children going but he has no power to do so. So please let me ^{know} as soon as everything permits concerning. I thank you in advance.
