My dear Miss Lenher:

The Office has received your letter of July 3, requesting information as to the method of procuring enrollment at the Carlisle School of a young Indian girl. It is suggested that you correspond with Mr. Oscar H. Lipps, Superintendent of the Carlisle Indian School, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, giving him the name, degree of Indian blood, and grade of the Indian girl you wish to have admitted to his school.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) E. B. Meritt
