My dear Boys:

I have your letter of holiday greetings and wish to thank you heartily for your thoughtfulness and good will.

It is gratifying to me that the Indian boys and girls are everywhere showing increased interest in securing an education. The popularity of our schools is evidenced by the fact that the school capacity is now overtaxed and that it will be necessary to arrange for additional school facilities, all of which indicates a more rapid progress than heretofore and upon which the Indians are to be congratulated.
