that she had improper relationship with the boy. She also admitted that prior to coming to this school, she had frequently had improper relationship with boys. George Horn first denied the charge and then admitted that he had met her, the girl, under the conditions mentioned as well as two other times at the same place and time.

Mrs. McPherson is a serious, earnest, wellmeaning woman who has been employed in the position for about six months and has never been guilty to my knowledge, of neglect of duty. She has about 35 girls under

Emma is a backward girl of a comparative low order of intelligence. She has heretofore born a good reputation and was not considered a bad girl at all.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

UNITED STATES INDIAN SCHOOL

CARLISLE, PA.

April 4, 1918.

Honorable Cato Sells Commissioner of Indian Affairs Washington, D. C.

Sir:

FILED BY G. P. F.

The following case is submitted for your consideration.

On Wednesday about two o'clock in the afterncen, Mrs. McPherson, the Dining-room matron, missed
Emma Williams, a full-blood Caddo Indian girl, 15 years of age from her detail in the Dining-room where she had been set at a task of scrubbing. She immediately searched for her and found her alone by the door in the basement of the Dining Hall. Other girls in the detail reported that George Horn, a Piegan Indian boy of the Blackfeet Indian reservation and a kitchen boy, had been with her there but had run out before the Dining-room matron had arrived.

The girl admitted to Mrs. Ewing, the matron, that she had improper relationship with the boy. She also admitted that prior to coming to this school, she had frequently had improper relationship with boys. George Horn first denied the charge and then admitted that he had met her, the girl, under the conditions mentioned as well as two other times at the same place and time.

Mrs. McPherson is a serious, earnest, wellmeaning woman who has been employed in the position for
her and for whom she is responsible.

Emma is a backward girl of a comparative low order of intelligence. She has heretofore born a good reputation and was not considered a bad girl at all.

I request authority to return both of these pupils to their homes immediately for the good of the school, advising both superintendents of the facts so that if deemed advisable, a marriage can be arranged in the future.

Veryntruly yours

Superintendent.
