Gentlemen: -

Indian School has ceased to exist, having been taken over by the Government for a hospital, which means that I can get no more little Indian girls from that source, to live with me

I inquired of Mr. Charles E. Eastman what to do, and he suggested that I write to the Bureau for information, and added that he would be

Here is a home that would welcome one.

Kindly advise me.

Very truly yours,

(Mrs. G. G.) Elizabeth B. Sabin

"very glad to endorse <sup>your</sup> ~~my~~ society as an excellent ~~one~~ for the girls."

Dr. Eastman and his wife are close friends of ours, and we have the pleasure of a visit from him about once a year.

The little girl I have at present is Elsie Bonser, sixteen years, a student, and has two years more

We are very fond of Elsie and are very sorry to lose her, and would like to have another to take her place.

I understand there are several girls who would like to be placed in homes, so
