OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, WASHINGTON.

SUBJECT :

Sept. 16⁷, 1907.

Transfer of children to Carlisle.

Superintendent,
Fort Lapwai Indian School,
Lapwai, Idaho.

Sir :

Your letter of the 29th ultimo, naming 25 children who have been transferred to the Carlisle School with the voluntary consent of their parents or guardians, has been received.

It is assumed that a consent blank has been made out for each of these children, that the information called for on the blank has been fully given in each instance, that all were in suitable health, and that all the requirements have been complied with.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) G. F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.
