Mr. Moses Friedman,

Sup't Carlisle School.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a copy of a letter, dated June 6, 1912, from the Civil Service Commission, regarding the complaint of the Postoffice Department with reference to the holding of non-competitive examinations at Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

In the future, you should arrange to submit in groups your requests for non-competitive examinations in order to avoid unnecessarily taking up the time of the local board of examiners. Of course there may be special cases when it will be necessary to make the request special, but as a rule the Office believes that you can arrange to hold these examinations in such a way as to avoid in the future the complaint of the Postoffice Department.

Respectfully,
(Signed) C. F. Hauke.

Second Assistant Commissioner.

The Civil Service Commission,

Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen:

The Office is in receipt of your letter of June 6, stating that the First Assistant Postmaster General complains of the time that the local board at Carlisle is required to spend in holding civil service examinations, and suggesting that the requests for non-competitive examinations for pupils at the Carlisle School be grouped in order to avoid the necessity of frequent examinations.

You are advised that this matter has been taken up with the Superintendent of that school, who has been directed to group his requests for non-competitive examinations in the future as far as practicable, and the Office will cooperate with your Commission in every way possible to remove the cause of the complaint of the Post-office Department.

Respectfully,

(Signed) C. F. Hauke.

Second Assistant Commissioner.

United States
Civil Service Commission,
Washington, D. C.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of a letter from the postmaster at Carlisle, Pa., by reference from the First Assistant Postmaster General, complaining of the time that the local board at Carlisle is required to spend in holding civil service examinations. An investigation of the matter shows that the examinations complained of were noncompetitive examinations for appointment in the Indian Service. These examinations are spread over several months, sometimes over short intervals. The matter is brought to your attention in the hope that requests for these examinations may be grouped, thereby avoiding the necessity of frequent examinations. The commission will be glad to receive your views in the matter.

By direction of the Commission:

very respectfully,

John D. McKinny

Acting President.
