United States Indian Service,

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN YOUTH,

CARLISLE BARRACKS,

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 8th 1879

Hon. E. A. Hoyt
Commissioner of Indian Affairs
Washington D. C.

Sir

In Reply to your letter of the 5th inst in reference to Ed. Bloodon I have to say that my knowledge of Mr. Bloodon is limited to meeting him at Rosebud Landing as I went out to the Agency last September. He then applied to me for the place named in your letter and referred to Major Newell. I asked Major Newell about him, but got no satisfactory answer either for or against, On my return to the Landing Bloodon again applied and said he would send recommendations. He wrote me personally here and then again through Major Pollard (a copy of this last letter I herewith enclose)

This is all I know of him. Personally my impressions are favorable. If he is as capable as he represents I could make good use of him here, especially if the Dept. increase the number of children

Very Respectfully

Your Obedient Servant
