CARLISLE BARRACKS,

Carlisle, Pa., April 2^d, 1880.

Hon R. E. Frowbridge
Commissioner of Indian Affairs
Washington D. C.

Sir

In view of the action of the War Department in reference to the detail of Lieut Brown, as communicated in your letter of March 31st, it seems best to advise you, that I can arrange so as to go in person, after the Indian Youth the Department contemplates adding to this School, from tribes in New Mexico and Colorado. I should prefer to delay starting until after the visit of the Dakota Chiefs

Very respectfully

Your obedient servant
